THINK HIGHER, FEEL DEEPER:

CONNIE VERA'S

PASSIONATE APPROACH TO REAL ESTATE

As a genuinely empathetic individual and devoted mother, Connie Vera finds profound fulfillment in her real estate career. Her mission is to assist others in securing their dream homes—a safe haven where they can forge their futures. The most rewarding aspect of her job is witnessing the transformative joy as clients step into new chapters of their lives within the walls where their most cherished memories will unfold.

Connie's personal journey, marked by a challenging life and entry to foster care in her teens, took a transformative turn when she was taken in by a wonderful family and, remarkably, her adoptive mom happened to be her English teacher at a Waldorf high school! This pivotal time changed the trajectory of Connie's life, deeply influencing her appreciation for the stability and warmth of a loving home. Her experience has shaped her view of real estate as a field that transcends mere transactions. For Connie, it's about forging lasting bonds with people from all walks of life and empathizing with their unique experiences and challenges.

In Connie's view, her role offers a unique platform to support and inspire individuals, particularly those from marginalized communities. She helps them not only find a home but also build a legacy of wealth for future generations. Connie often humorously tells her clients she's part therapist, crisis manager, advocate, and friend, with home selling as a sideline. Yet, she firmly believes she was meant for this role.

Growing up in a challenging environment taught Connie to handle high-pressure situations from a young age. This background has equipped her with innate problem-solving, negotiation, and advocacy skills - traits she brings to every relationship with deep commitment. Driven by a fervent desire to help others and admittedly a touch of workaholicism, Connie constantly strives to balance her professional zeal with the need for quality time with her family.

Real estate is deeply woven into Connie's dreams and goals because it's more than buildings and land to her. Each home has its own story, and every person she meets has a unique journey. This profession allows her to become part of these stories by helping people find a place where they can feel safe, create memories, and build their futures. It's about understanding and valuing those personal narratives and recognizing the profound impact a home can have on a person's life.

Connie's commitment extends beyond individual homes to the community at large. It's about fostering a sense of belonging and community, where people feel connected and supported. Real estate allows her to make a meaningful difference in people's lives, which is incredibly fulfilling. It's not just about transactions; it's about relationships and making a positive impact, aligning perfectly with her desire to contribute something meaningful to the world.

Connie lives by the motto, "Think higher, feel deeper." This mindset encourages her to aim for lofty goals in her career while deeply understanding and empathizing with her clients. Understanding the market and staying ahead of trends is crucial, but being deeply in tune with clients' needs and emotions is equally important. This dual focus enables her to provide exceptional service beyond the transactional aspects of buying and selling homes.

The importance of family has also marked Connie's journey. The night before her high school graduation, a parent's advice was, "It's not about where you come from, but the family you build that truly matters." Shortly after, Connie met her now husband, Carlos, and they have been inseparable for 23 years. They were blessed with three wonderful children in just three years. Their kids are now 12, 10, and 9, and they mean everything to her. Their partnership has flourished, driven by a shared mission to give their children the opportunities they never had and honor their immigrant parents' sacrifices.

Connie focuses on creating genuine connections and being a trusted advisor, never compromising integrity. For her, the relationships she builds are the cornerstone of her career. By thinking higher and feeling deeper, Connie Vera inspires and supports her community, making a lasting impact through her dedication and compassion.

ELEVATES FAMILY REAL ESTATE LEGACY AFTER JOINING FORCES WITH DAD

Four years ago, Riley Costello never thought she'd be a Realtor, let alone a top-producing one who loves what she gets to do each day. Daughter of the highly celebrated real estate broker, Kevin Costello, Riley grew up in Lake Oswego immersed in the real estate business but before taking the plunge, pursued her passion to be a writer. Two published novels later, her path took an unexpected turn during the pandemic. She returned to her hometown of Lake Oswego and found a renewed appreciation for the family business, prompting her to get her real estate license and join forces with her dad.

"Learning from my dad has been instrumental in the value I've been able to provide," Riley shares. "Having grown up in the area, I can educate my clients on home values, schools, lifestyle, and all the amenities that make different neighborhoods unique."

Writing was actually a perfect segue way to her successful real estate career. "What most people don't realize about publishing a book is that the writing is only half of it. Promoting the book is the other half." The release of her first book illuminated her natural talent for the sales aspect of the job. She discovered that negotiation and selling were innate skill sets for her. Successfully pitching her books to bookstores and landing features on news channels and magazines opened her eyes to other careers where she could utilize these talents. With its dynamic, people-oriented environment, Riley's transition into a real estate career is a natural fit.

"My favorite part of the career is helping people move in the direction of their dream life," says Riley. "Whether it's selling a home for top dollar so they can embark on their next adventure, advising on terms to beat out multiple offers, or helping make a sound financial investment in a starter home, I love being part of the process of achieving their goals."

Working alongside her father, who has almost forty years of experience, Riley is acutely aware of the vast knowledge required to excel in real estate. "I'm always blown away that he seems to know the answer to literally everything!" she exclaims. "My biggest challenge is being patient as I continue to learn and remembering to give myself credit for the skills I bring to the table." But as a two-time published novelist, her writing skills have proven invaluable in her real estate career. "I've been told many times that the cover letters that accompany my offers and my written communication have helped beat out multiple offers," she notes.

Riley's dedication to providing value to her clients is clear. Whether guiding newcomers to the area or assisting homeowners ready to move on, she prides herself on being a resource who puts people at ease and helps them make informed decisions. Her passion extends beyond business; it's about building trust and forming lasting relationships, making each client feel valued and important.

Outside of work, Riley enjoys reading, traveling, and taking group fitness classes. For years, she was a dance fitness instructor and still teaches once a week at The Trainer's Club in Lake Oswego. The return of her siblings to Lake Oswego and the proximity to her parents, who have lived there for nearly forty years, has strengthened their close-knit family bond. They love spending summers on the lake and winters exploring the best coffee shops and breweries.

Riley has always strived to provide real value to her friends, family, and community. She thrives on helping people through what is often one of the most emotional and challenging life transitions—buying or selling a home. Her creative problem-solving skills and enthusiasm for the job help alleviate the stress of the process, turning it into a memorable experience.

Reflecting on her journey, Riley admits, "I wish I had gotten into real estate sooner, but I saw my life as looking a particular way. I'm so grateful I took a chance on this different path, as it has turned out to be a wonderful and rewarding one."

TRANSACTION COORDINATION MADE SIMPLE:

GET TO KNOW

ADMIN BY DESIGN

Successful agents understand the value of efficiency and delegation. With the complex and exacting tasks required in managing real estate transactions, from pre-listing to closing, having a trusted partner to handle the deadlines and details is invaluable. Enter Admin by Design, a real estate pre-listing and transaction coordination service that has been a cornerstone of the Portland metro area real estate community since 2017.

Admin by Design prides itself on being more than just your average “paper pusher”. With a motto of “We Take Care Of The Deadlines & Details So You Don’t Have To,” their purpose is to provide top-tier transaction coordination services akin to having a personal assistant dedicated to managing every aspect of your transactions. From contract to closing, they take care of the timelines, details, and client support so agents can focus on what they do best – prospecting, showing properties, and negotiating deals.

Admin by Design stands out with its proactive approach to managing timelines, problem-solving, and constant communication. This unique approach ensures agents can focus on revenue-generating activities, setting us apart from our competitors. With over 2,000 transactions coordinated and counting, their track record speaks for itself.

Admin by Design’s Professional Concierge Services are a game-changer for Realtors and their clients. By handling the administrative burdens of transactions, they free up agents’ time and energy for more important tasks like prospecting, marketing, and staying informed about industry trends and developments.

Behind the scenes, the team operates with specialized systems that keep them ahead of the curve regarding transaction timelines. Organization, professionalism, and accountability are not just words—they are the pillars of their business, ensuring that every transaction is executed with precision and care.

But don’t just take our word for it. Here are testimonials from satisfied clients:

“I don’t even know where to start with my experience with Admin by Design - except to say that they have literally changed my business and my life. I can do three times the volume because of their team. I don’t need to micromanage them because they are a group of exceptional professionals. They take care of all my paperwork, but they also provide excellent client and partner communication. I have had the opportunity to hire a full-time admin to replace their services - as one of the top producing agents in America, it’s in my budget to do that, but I would never even consider it. Emily and her team are the best in the business and I know I wouldn’t be where I am without them.” Aubrey Martin of Keller Williams Sunset Corridor

“Emily and her team are absolutely the best TCs I have ever had! I have been in the business 8 years, and have experienced many.

“ WE TAKE CARE OF THE DEADLINES & DETAILS SO YOU DON'T HAVE TO. ”

I even thought I had good ones in the past, and they blew them out of the water.

They quite literally keep my life in order by proactively managing my transactions, problem-solving, and keep in constant communication to ensure they are helping with anything I could possibly dream of! I find that I don't even always utilize the exponential list they offer to the fullest- I am SO grateful for everything they do to support me in my business. They are worth EVERY

PENNY - I am absolutely addicted to Admin By Design!" Rachel Delavan of Delavan Realty

In a competitive real estate market like Portland, having a reliable partner like Admin by Design can make all the difference. With their unwavering dedication to excellence and commitment to streamlining the transaction process, they truly elevate the real estate business for agents and clients alike.
