WHITE-GLOVE SERVICE IN EXECUTIVE AND ATHLETE RELOCATION

CARRIE WELLHOUSER is a pioneer in executive relocation in the greater Portland market. A master of innovation and service, she built her own full-service boutique concierge agency and leads a team of elite real estate consultants offering relocation and concierge services to an international clientele and professional athletes.

WELLHOUSER

Carrie dove into real estate in 1996 when the industry was full of opportunities and challenges. Unlike many who started their careers in traditional real estate brokerage firms, Carrie took a unique path by establishing herself as the owner of a corporate relocation company. Through this path, she found her niche, catering to the needs of executives, professional athletes, and high-profile clientele across the nation and beyond. Her keen understanding of the unique demands of this market segment propelled her to become a trusted advisor for athletes' real estate needs, earning her a reputation as a key player in the industry.

Carrie provides exceptional service to her clients. She ensures that their experience is seamless and hassle-free, no matter how big or small the task is. Her expertise ranges from full-service moves to the procurement of rentals or furnished housing, school tours, banking needs, DMV paperwork, obtaining social security cards, car logistics, private aviation, pet moving, training or boarding, personal assistants, home organizing, and management of movers or private shoppers. In short, she takes care of every detail, so her clients don't have to worry about a thing.

Carrie's commitment to excellence and unwavering dedication to her clients have earned her accolades and recognition within the industry, solidifying her status as a trusted advisor and confidante during their most stressful times. "I love helping people and am a natural caretaker. I can find solutions in complex scenarios and navigate complicated issues in the home buying/selling process. I work tirelessly for my clients."

Before delving into real estate, Carrie built her skills in asset management and hospitality marketing, laying a solid foundation for her future success. This diverse background equipped her with a wealth of knowledge and insights that would prove invaluable in maximizing profits for her clients.

For Carrie, the most rewarding aspect of her business lies in successfully completing complex negotiations and devising innovative solutions that transcend conventional boundaries. Her financial acumen and knack for thinking outside the box enable her to maximize profits for her clients, ensuring their satisfaction and trust in her abilities.

Despite her many accomplishments, Carrie remains humble and grounded. She cites her biggest challenge as the inability to help everyone all of the time. Her innate caregiving nature compels her to go above and beyond for her clients, often extending her services beyond the realms of traditional real estate brokerage.

Outside of her professional endeavors, Carrie enjoys spending quality time with her family and indulging in her hobbies. Living on a small farm in the Stafford area, Carrie and her family are kept quite busy caring for their 3 pigs Abraham, Portabello, and now baby Remington. She loves to hike through the great outdoors, relax by a fire-side with a good book, and is a travel enthusiast, always eager to explore new destinations and experiences.

In addition to her professional pursuits, Carrie is deeply committed to supporting charitable causes and organizations close to her heart. She channels her passion for animal welfare into meaningful action, partnering with various rescues and dedicating her time and resources to support search and rescue efforts and foster care for domestic and farm animals.

Reflecting on her journey, Carrie only wishes she had utilized her real estate license earlier. Nevertheless, her path has led her to where she is today, a beacon of inspiration and success in Portland real estate.

Looking ahead, Carrie's aspirations and objectives are closely linked to her affection for homes and people. Being a caregiver by nature with a passion for assisting others, real estate provides her with the ideal opportunity to make a significant difference in the lives of her clients. As Carrie continues to chart new territories and redefine the boundaries of what is possible in real estate, her passion, professionalism, and unwavering commitment to service remain steadfast, inspiring her peers and clients alike. In a world where excellence is the standard, Carrie Wellhouser stands out as a true innovator in the field.

MARIE WARSZALEK

From Classroom to Closing A Journey into Real Estate

Marie Warszalek's journey into real estate began in 2018 when she left her career in special education to venture into the mortgage industry. But she soon realized her true calling was to become a real estate agent. In October 2020, Marie took the plunge and started her career as a REALTOR®. Despite being relatively new to the industry, Marie has become a rising star in Portland's real estate market.

Marie Warszalek's passion for helping clients find their dream homes and her flexibility and keen understanding of market conditions have made her a rising star in the industry.

For Marie, the best part of being a REALTOR® is helping her clients find their dream homes and guiding them through one of the most significant decisions of their lives. She finds it incredibly rewarding to know that she has played a part in making her clients' real estate goals a reality. Marie takes pride in the trust her clients place in her and is grateful for the opportunity to be a part of their journey.

As a REALTOR®, Marie faces the challenge of staying ahead of market trends and adapting to changing dynamics. She understands that the real estate market is dynamic, with fluctuations in demand, inventory levels, and economic factors. To navigate this challenge, Marie keeps herself informed about market conditions and continuously learns and adapts her strategies accordingly. Her flexibility and keen understanding of market conditions have helped her stay ahead of the curve.

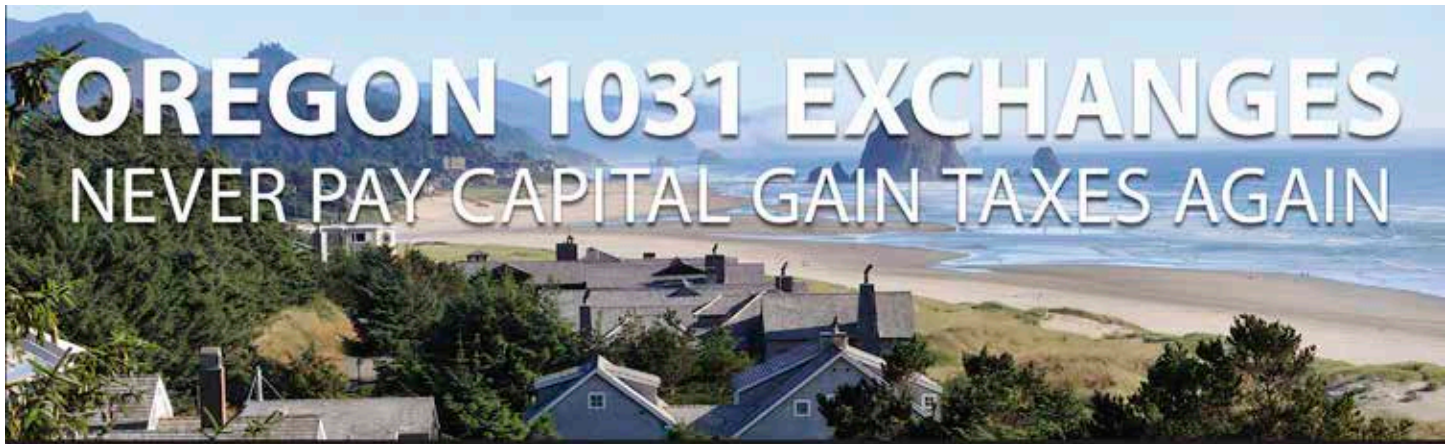

Marie's family is the cornerstone of her life. She has been married to her husband, Jerry, for almost 30 years, and they have two exceptional children. Their daughter Fran is 26 years old and works as a nurse. Their son Jack is 23 and works in construction engineering. Marie cherishes spending quality time with her family and friends, whether it's through outdoor adventures or simply sharing good conversations and meals together.

In her free time, Marie enjoys staying active with activities like hiking, paddleboarding, and yoga. She also has a passion for exploring new places and cultures through travel and appreciates the art of wine tasting as a way to unwind and savor different flavors. Marie and her family have a dog named Nala, part Border Collie and Newfoundland, whom they adopted three years ago.

Marie Warszalek's passion for helping clients find their dream homes and her flexibility and keen understanding of market conditions have made her a rising star in the industry.
