LEADING WITH INTEGRITY:

DAVID CALDWELL'S

INSPIRING JOURNEY IN REAL ESTATE

David Caldwell's journey in real estate began in March 2007 when, at the age of 24, he obtained his license. With the encouragement of family and friends who recognized his outgoing personality and the booming market at the time, David embarked on a career path that would ultimately lead him to become a respected figure in the industry.

Fast-forward to today. David leads the Hillshire Realty Group, a boutique real estate team located in Portland, OR. They understand that what makes a home is not the walls but what happens within them. They take a consultative approach to real estate, educating their clients to enable informed decisions and always leading with a client-first approach. Since its inception, the team has sold over 1,500 homes, earning a reputation for excellence and integrity in the industry.

David's approach to real estate is unique. Unlike some agents who are driven by a passion for houses, his fascination lies in financial markets and people. "I love educating and helping buyers and sellers navigate through ever-changing markets and emotionally complex transactions." This unique perspective has allowed him to stand out in the industry.

For David, the most rewarding aspect of his career is the connections he makes with people. As a real estate broker, he has witnessed firsthand how homeownership can positively impact the lives of his clients. Transitioning from an independent brokerage owner to operating as a team, David takes pride in supporting agent growth and helping new agents establish their businesses. Additionally, his role as a coach and speaker has allowed him to extend his influence beyond his local market, empowering real estate professionals to implement positive changes in their practices.

David's favorite quote, "What you do today is important because you are exchanging a day of your life for it," underscores his commitment to living each day with purpose and intentionality. He acknowledges the tendency for real estate professionals, including himself, to become ensnared in pursuing more. He emphasizes the importance of focusing on the most impactful tasks to achieve one's goals efficiently.

David is not just a real estate professional, but also a family man. Alongside his small team, he strives to create a supportive environment where everyone can enjoy a balance between work and family life. He is grateful for the opportunities his career has afforded him, cherishing the flexibility to spend quality time with his family and 2-year-old Blue Heeler Cattle Dog. His 8-year-old daughter Lily is very athletic and only a few belts away from being a taekwondo black belt. She is very into sports including basketball and soccer. His youngest daughter Annabelle is 5 years old and is very much a girly girl. She loves gymnastics, coloring, and riding her scooter.

I LOVE EDUCATING AND HELPING BUYERS AND SELLERS NAVIGATE THROUGH EVER-CHANGING MARKETS AND EMOTIONALLY COMPLEX TRANSACTIONS.

Beyond his professional pursuits, David has a strong dedication to personal growth. He has developed a keen interest in Brazilian jiu-jitsu, practicing 4 times per week despite his busy schedule. He recognizes the parallels between the lessons learned in business and those gleaned from martial arts, viewing both as avenues for personal growth and development.

In navigating the ups and downs of the real estate market, David emphasizes the importance of humility, client service, and maintaining focus on the daily habits that drive success. He cautions against becoming complacent or allowing success to inflate one's ego, urging fellow real estate professionals to remain grounded and dedicated to serving their clients.

As David continues to evolve and excel in his career, his journey serves as a testament to the power of perseverance, lifelong learning, and a genuine commitment to making a positive impact in the lives of others. With his unwavering dedication to excellence and passion for his profession and personal pursuits, David Caldwell stands as a beacon of inspiration for real estate professionals striving to achieve their goals and create meaningful, fulfilling careers.

FROM GENERAL CONTRACTOR TO INSPECTOR:

ROB WHITE'S EXPERT APPROACH TO HOME INSPECTIONS

Meet Rob White, the seasoned owner of Home Inspection Team. Specializing in radon testing and sewer scope inspections, Rob has turned his wealth of experience into a trusted resource for home buyers, realtors, and investors. With over two decades of experience as a general contractor, Rob's transition into home inspections was natural and highly beneficial for his clients.

Rob White's journey into the home inspection industry is rooted in a solid foundation of practical, hands-on experience. After spending 20 years as a general contractor, Rob recognized a significant gap he could fill. His extensive background meant he understood the intricacies of home construction, the potential issues that can arise, and the best ways to address them. This unique perspective enables Rob to provide a thorough and insightful analysis of each property he inspects.

on understanding each client's expectations and tailoring his services to meet them. This client-centric approach has proven to be a winning formula for building long-lasting relationships. "Good service means different things to different people," Rob says. "By asking clients what they need and then working hard to deliver that, I've built a trusted and respected business. It's all about listening to what they want and ensuring I meet those needs."

"I've spent most of my life understanding homes from the inside out," Rob empathetically explains. "When I inspect a property, I'm not just pointing out problems; I'm also explaining the solutions and the costs involved. My goal is to inform and educate my clients, not to scare them. I understand that buying a home is a significant investment, and I want to ensure my clients feel confident and secure in their decision."

Looking ahead, Rob White is unwavering in his commitment to maintaining the high standards that have defined his business, Home Inspection Team. His focus on personalized service, clear communication, and expert insights continue to set his business apart in the competitive real estate market, ensuring his clients can always rely on his expertise and professionalism.

One of the defining features of Home Inspection Team is Rob's commitment to personalized service. Operating as a one-man team, he values the direct connections he builds with each client. He humorously refers to his business as a "boutique" agency, emphasizing his tailored approach to meet every client's unique needs.

Rob's approach to home inspection is deeply rooted in clear communication and education. Rob focuses on presenting information in a way that is thorough and clear but not alarming. His ability to communicate complex issues clearly and straightforwardly helps clients feel informed and confident about their decisions.

For Rob, the success of the Home Inspection Team is measured by his clients' satisfaction and trust. He places great importance

IS THRIVING IN REAL ESTATE

What did you do before real estate and when did you start your career as a REALTOR®?

I owned a junk removal business from 2017 - 2020 but I was ready to start a family and wanted a career that would provide me with a lifestyle to be active in their lives. In April 2020 I made the plunge into real estate.

How did your mentors or brokerage help lead the way to establish your career?

When I first got licensed Andee Ziegler was my mentor and she was essential to me getting started. Once I moved to Inhabit Real Estate, I gained two additional new mentors, Patrick Clark and Eric Hagstette, who helped me level up and mature my business.

Choosing my second brokerage was an important decision because I knew I wanted a more intimate and collaborative setting. I chose Inhabit because I got a little more hands-on attention with my systems and business practices. I am very grateful to be at a brokerage that offers so much support and cares about each agent as much as Inhabit does. Before coming to Inhabit, I never thought where you work out of mattered, but now I see how culture and who you surround yourself with are everything.

►► realtor on the rise

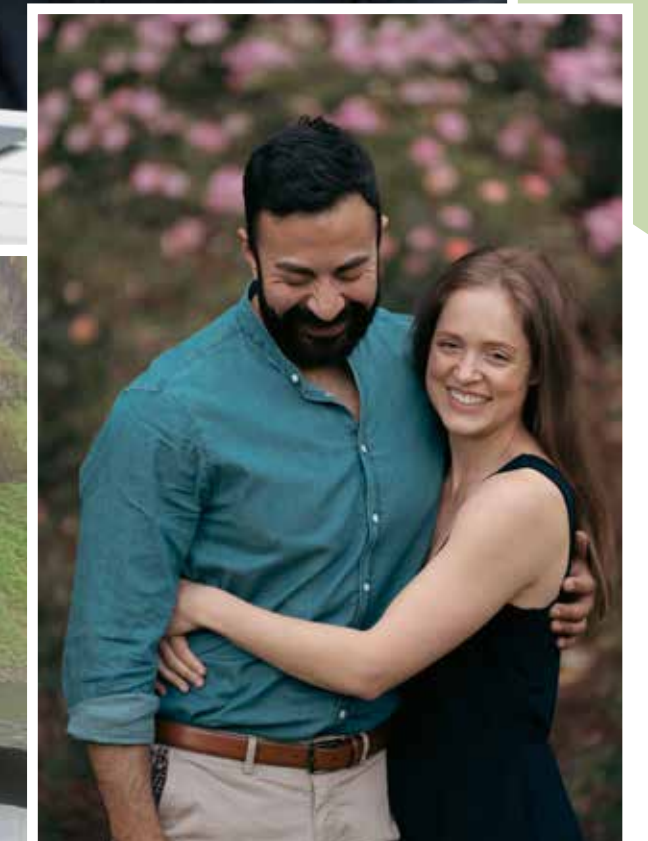

Meet Jason Connelly, a dedicated REALTOR® with Inhabit Real Estate here in Portland. Previously, Jason was a small business owner before transitioning into the real estate industry in April 2020. Jason finds immense fulfillment in building meaningful relationships with his clients and experiencing the joy of helping them find their dream homes. Here we learn more about his journey in real estate and his life outside of work.

What is your favorite and most rewarding part of being a REALTOR®?

It's the little thank you texts after getting someone or family in a new home. I've received some texts after a transaction that brought me to tears knowing I played such an important role in helping someone. Also, I appreciate the relationships built with my clients. So many clients have become close friends after a transaction.

What is your biggest challenge as a REALTOR® and how do you navigate through this?

Dealing with imposter syndrome. I'm very aware that I'm still very new to this and there are many realtors with much more experience than me. I have to remind myself daily that despite the short time I've been a broker I have a decent amount of experience.

What do you do for fun?

I'm the typical Portland native. When not selling real estate, I enjoy an active lifestyle: working out in the gym, hiking, spending time at the mountain, exploring waterfalls and swimming holes, and playing with my son at our neighborhood parks in Northeast Portland. My wife and I also enjoy cooking and trying all the food the city has to offer.

Are there any charities or organizations you support?

I'm a part of my neighborhood business association's events planning committee, Montavilla East Tabor Business Association (METBA). I also regularly volunteer with Los Niños Cuentan which is a non-profit geared toward outreach for Latino families who are victims of domestic violence.

Do you have anything you want to add?

I'm honored to have had so many people in my life support me on this journey by trusting me to represent them (and their closest friends) with their biggest financial decisions.

To reach Jason Connelly call 971-930-0990 or email jason@inhabitre.com.

My team and I pre-approve our buyers by validating income, credit, and assets, ensuring they make stronger, more competitive offers. This gives realtors and their clients confidence in a sound, reliable offer. We are standing by to help you get your deals to the finish line!

Pre-Qualified VS Pre-Approved

- Initial first step of the mortgage loan process and gateway to buying a home.
- Provides an estimate of what a client may be able to afford.
- Based on an overall summary of information a client has verbally provided: employment, credit, income, assets, etc.
- Evaluation of information provided allows the lender to give an idea of the mortgage loan amount for which a client may qualify for.
- Pre-qualified buyers have a rough idea of what they can afford, allowing their agent to research and showcase homes that are in a specific price range.

- Helps you shop with confidence.
- Completion of an official mortgage loan application.
- The Client has provided the lender with the necessary information and documentation to perform an extensive check on their financial background and current credit rating.
- Based on the documentation the client provided, the lender will determine the specific loan programs they can use and the amount they can afford.
- An idea of what interest rate and APR will be available to the client.
- Conditional commitment will be received in writing for a client's exact loan amount.
- Sellers are more likely to accept an offer from a buyer who has already secured financing.
