KELLY MCLAREN

— REAL ESTATE GROUP —

Relentless pursuit of excellence. I don't know a better statement to describe this woman. She is absolutely obsessed with the mastery of her craft. From the way she does her marketing all the way down to the attention to detail she gives her clients. Her brain starts working the moment she gets up (I get the early text messages to prove it) and doesn't stop until she is out cold for the night. She is always thinking about how to be 1% better. How to move that needle closer to her goals. Entirely obsessed, and I LOOOVVVEEEE IT!

If you are a newer agent, and want to learn from a pro that still has the passion and fire that so many lose, I couldn't suggest a better person to learn from.

Iron sharpens Iron. Kelly, you are my favorite Bada$$$. xo

PUBLISHER'S NOTE

If you've done an interview with me to be featured, you've heard me say that our goal with the magazine is to build connection and camaraderie and that no two realtors are going to connect because they sold the same number of houses or happened to win the same award. They're going to connect because their kids both play soccer. Or they both have a goldendoodle. Or they're both training for a marathon. Things that really matter to them. Because of that we try to be really intentional in sharing as many of those personal details as we can in each article of every single issue with the hope that you will find connection with one another and that shared love of something helps transactions go smoother. That those of you invested in this community know and love each other and when multiple offers are on the table, you reach for the one from someone in the IE Real Producers community because you know they share your values and are in line with our commitment to working with integrity, kindness and grit.

Each year we'll do a special issue centered around a point of connection. Spotlighting motherhood was our first special issue in May of last year and we're excited to build on that trend this year with the 2024 Car Issue. Realtors + Cars + SoCal felt like a recipe for success and it very much delivered! Thank you to everyone who was featured for braving the scorching heat and having not only yourselves but your cars ready to be photographed! We are so excited to show them off and hope that sharing them starts conversations that lead to more connections!

Shooting this was seriously so much fun! Thank you to Steven Amaya for being the Creative Director for this special issue. Steven has an incredible gift to just see a scene and know the way a photo should be set up and he brought that magic to each shoot. I'm thankful for the collaborative energy we share that helped us really capture something special for each person and the cars they love.

We hope you enjoy reading this as much as we enjoyed making it! We can't wait to see you at our next event! -Marissa

STRATEGIC FARMING

Do you have Strategic Farming in your real estate marketing strategy?

HERE'S SOME REASONS YOU MAY WANT TO RECONSIDER:

- Brand Recognition and Trust:
 Consistently marketing in the same area helps agents establish themselves as the go-to expert, building brand recognition and trust among residents.
- Deep Market Knowledge:
 Focusing on a specific area allows agents to gain in-depth knowledge of local market trends and property values, providing clients with valuable and accurate insights.
- Stronger Client Relationships:
 Regular interactions and involvement in the community help build strong personal connections, leading to increased referrals and repeat business.
