*Limited time current 2026 "Grow Broker Program" Agent Rewards Program supersedes and replaces in its entirety any prior Grow Broker Program as of 1/1/25 and valid for your properly registered client on all new cash or financed home contracts on a Taylor Morrison (Indianapolis area) eligible new move-in ready, quick move-in, inventory or to-be-built home (each, an "Eligible Home") written as of 1/1/26-12/31/26 and closed by 6/1/27 ("Promotion Period"). For current 2026 Grow Broker Program eligibility during the Promotion Period, (1) First Sale: 3% standard commission paid for your 1st 2026 sale/closing; and (2) Second and Beyond Sales: 3% standard commission plus 1.25% bonus for second sale/closing and each subsequent sale/closing thereafter (no cap) during the Promotion Period. Broker's Commission cannot be used to reduce the purchase price of the home and is only valid if: (i) actively licensed Indiana Broker/Agent personally accompanies and registers its client with the Taylor Morrison Community Sales Manager on client's first visit to the Eligible Home's Community; (ii) Broker/Agent personally accompanies its client on the showing of the Eligible Home; (iii) Broker/Agent's Client enters into a new purchase agreement for an Eligible Home during the Promotion Period. As of its Client's Purchase Agreement Date and subject to further verification, Agent must provide written documentation to Taylor Morrison's Community Sales Manager indicating its total year-to-date qualifying sales. Commission payable to actively licensed IN Broker at Closing only upon client's successful Closing and will be calculated using the Base Price of Client's Eligible Home, as reflected in the paragraph of the Purchase Agreement entitled "Purchase Price" as of the Purchase Agreement Date ("Commission"). However, if the final purchase price of a To-Be-Built home set forth in the closing disclosure or settlement statement is less than the Base Price of the home as of the Purchase Agreement Date, then the Commission shall be based upon the final purchase price of the home in the closing disclosure or settlement statement. No team sales; only individual Buyer's Agent may qualify. The 2026 Grow Broker Program™ does not affect the Purchase Price or Incentives offered on Client's Eligible Home and is invalid and will not be counted as a sale for purposes of calculation eligibility, if the real estate broker/agent is purchasing an Eligible Home for him or herself during the Promotion Period and is already receiving the benefit of the Standard 3% commission for the transaction or if the home is contracted outside of the Promotion Period ("Excluded Sale"). All other terms and conditions of Seller's Indiana-area Broker Referral Policies & Procedures (per community) and Broker Bonus Addendum apply. Broker solely responsible for all applicable taxes. Additional details and restrictions may apply and all homes subject to prior sale. May not be combined with any other special Broker bonuses or offers unless otherwise set forth in a Broker Bonus Addendum. Limited time Option Incentive (as defined in the Purchase Agreement) up to a maximum savings of $1,000 to be applied either towards Buyer or Seller-selected Structural or Design Options, including Canvas® Collection Packages (collectively, "Option Incentive"). The exact value of Buyer's actual savings on Option Incentive varies based on the specific options, lot, or plan selected; complete details available. Offer valid for select cash or financed new home contracts in Taylor Morrison's Indianapolis-area communities only (each, an "Eligible Home") written on or after 1/1/26 ONLY if Buyer's Broker/Agent is a 2026 Grow Broker Program participant and Buyer also finalizes all option selections and makes all required deposits within the time frame set forth in the Purchase Agreement ("Promotion Period"). Not valid outside of the Promotion Period, for use with an existing executed contract, in any other Taylor Morrison Division or with any other advertised promotions, incentive and/or offers and no substitutions permitted, except as expressly set forth in the Purchase Agreement (collectively, the "Ineligible Homes"). Any unused portion of the Option Incentive is forfeited and cannot be used for any other reason. Applied Option Incentive will be rounded off to nearest whole dollar. Option Incentive credited at closing upon satisfaction of all conditions precedent and for financed buyers, subject to lender guidelines that are outside of Seller's control. Seller reserves the right to modify this Promotion's terms and/or Promotion Period at any time prior to contract. Option Incentive is unrelated to and distinct from any financing incentive. The Option Incentive does not require use of Affiliated Lender and is available to all purchasing an applicable Eligible Home, regardless of who Buyer chooses to finance with or if Buyer pays cash. All eligibility decisions of Seller are final. Additional details and restrictions may apply. All information (including, but not limited to prices, views, availability, school assignments and ratings, incentives, floor plans, site plans, features, standards and options, assessments and fees, planned amenities, programs, conceptual artists' renderings and community development plans) is not guaranteed and remains subject to change or delay without notice. Seller reserves the right to modify, terminate or extend Promotion prior to contract. Offer void where prohibited or otherwise restricted by law. The Advisory Board is brand new to Indy Real Producers in year eleven, and these six leaders will serve for the entire year. The goal is simple. We want a real agent voice helping us grow, shaping both the content of the magazine and the quality of our events.

We know we are a trusted voice within the real estate world, but staying a trusted voice requires staying connected. Having agents we respect keeping their ear to the ground and giving insight into the daily realities of an agent will help us grow in every direction.

The Advisory Board is a badge of honor all on its own. Yes, there are some great perks, but the best part about these six is that they were eager to serve long before we ever talked benefits. They have always been champions of the community and supporters of Real Producers.

We could not be more excited to introduce them as the very first Advisory Board in Indy Real Producers history.

A Night To Remember

& ARTHOME PHOTOS

The Real Producers Awards may be over, but we're still celebrating the incredible professionals who were recognized. From the celebrations and award presentations to the unforgettable moments shared throughout the evening, June 3 was a night to remember.

It was a SOLD OUT event, and was the largest crowd we have ever welcomed to the awards banquet! Not only was there record attendance, but we also had a record number of award winners and more than 10,000 votes cast across all categories!

Thank you for being part of another record breaking year. Congratulations to each of the outstanding professionals who were in the room, and to all of the nominees of the well-deserved recognition on this night. Thank you for the example you set, the relationships you build, and the positive impact you continue to make across our industry. We are always honored to celebrate with you. We've gathered some of our favorite photos from the event to share with you, and they're just a glimpse of what made the night so special.

Agent Of The Year

The gala was a wonderful evening. It was beautifully organized, and it was clear how much thought and effort went into making it special. It was great to spend time with so many talented people in our industry and celebrate the accomplishments of others. Being named Realtor of the Year by Real Producers was a complete surprise. When my name was announced and I saw my face on the screen, I honestly could not believe it. I was overcome with emotion. To be recognized in that way by an organization I respect so much was incredibly humbling. My immediate reaction was gratitude. Gratitude for my kids who work alongside me every day, for the incredible team that has helped build what we have today, and for the amazing clients who have trusted us over the years. I am also incredibly grateful to Remington and the entire Real Producers team for this recognition. Although my name is on the award, it reflects the efforts, support, and belief of a lot of people over a lot of years.

- Lora Reynolds

This year was my first time attending the Real Producers Awards. I'm not typically a fancy dress and night out kind of gal. I can't believe it took being nominated for an award for me to come. Don't be like me and wait! It was such a great night. The room was full of talent, generosity, true leaders and Real Producers. It was full of the people you have spent your career looking up to and wondering how you could get in a room with them. The ones who seem larger than life. What a special night, full of laughs, networking, oo-ing and ah-ing at the sales figures and the legends of Indiana real estate. The highlight for me personally was attending with my dad. It was so fun to watch him in amazement of all the agents. I think we can forget what a cool job we have. To bring someone from outside of the industry in, and let them see so many great people doing great work, was a gift to see through his eyes. Thank you for having us! It was an absolute honor and pleasure to be nominated and invited. Winning the Cover of the Year award was beyond my imagination, and meant more to me than I can express.

Cover Of The Year

Philanthropy Award

It was truly an honor to be part of the Indy Real Producers gala a few weeks ago. I walked into the evening not knowing what award I was being considered for, and I was deeply humbled to be recognized with the Philanthropy Award. Indy Real Producers does such a meaningful job of bringing together people in our industry who are not only working hard in real estate, but also using their influence, time, and resources to make an impact beyond the transaction. When I serve through church or in the community, recognition is never the goal. My hope in receiving this award is simply that it encourages others to pause and consider the unique position we have as Realtors. We are invited into people's lives during major moments, and with that comes an opportunity to give back, show up, and serve well. It was an inspiring night surrounded by a great group of people, and I'm grateful to Indy Real Producers for creating a space that celebrates not just production, but purpose.

- Terrance Perken

What a fun and inspiring evening at the Real Producers Awards! I was truly honored to be recognized with the Culture Award and to be surrounded by so many talented, hardworking professionals who make our industry so special. Events like these are a great reminder of the importance of building relationships, supporting one another, and celebrating the people who help make our real estate community stronger every day. Thank you to Real Producers for creating opportunities that encourage collaboration, recognize excellence, and foster a culture of connection within our industry. Grateful to be part of such an amazing community!

- Dawn Pollard

Culture Award

Rising Star Award

Honestly, being at the gala was such a surreal moment for me. When I first got into real estate, I was just a 21-year-old who was willing to work hard, learn as much as I could, and bet on myself. I didn't know exactly where this career would take me, but I knew I wanted to build something I was proud of. Winning the Rising Star award meant a lot because it wasn't just about the sales numbers. It was a reflection of all the conversations, sacrifices, late nights, and people who trusted me to be a part of such a big chapter in their lives. What made the night even more special was getting to celebrate alongside so many incredible agents who inspire me. I'm just really grateful. Grateful for my clients who took a chance on me, the people who have supported me, and the opportunity to wake up every day and do something I truly love.

It was one of those moments where I had to stop and appreciate how far I've come, but also feel excited because I know this is only the beginning.

- Meja Williams

Marketing Guru Award

The Real Producers Gala was a reminder of how far this journey has come. A huge thank you to Remington Ramsey and the entire Real Producers family. What makes Real Producers different is that it isn't fluff. It isn't pay-to-play. It isn't about who can buy the biggest ad or make the most noise. It's about the people who put in the work day after day. The early mornings, late nights, sacrifices, failures, lessons, and grit that got them there. Thank you for giving hardworking agents a platform. Thank you for helping us stand out. Thank you for putting us on the map and showcasing the work that often happens behind the scenes. To be recognized alongside so many incredible professionals is something I don't take lightly. I'm grateful for the relationships, the opportunities, and the community that Real Producers has created.

- Sean Daniels

Impact Award

Impact is never achieved alone. I am grateful for the recognition and the peers who make our industry stronger every day. Thank you Remington for bringing everyone together!

MULCH HAPPENS

BY PHIL THORNBERRY

Landscaping Without Hurting Your Home

A fresh mulch or crushed rock border around a home's foundation can dramatically improve curb appeal. Done correctly, it can also help with drainage and reduce maintenance. Done incorrectly, it can become what home inspectors lovingly refer to as “a very attractive moisture problem.”

When inspectors evaluate the exterior of a home, we pay close attention to water management. We are especially concerned with the grade (slope). The ground should slope away from the house so rainwater does not collect at the foundation. Decorative borders should complement drainage, not create a moat. Downspouts should also discharge well away from the home. If a downspout empties directly into a flower bed beside the foundation, it is essentially working against the rest of the drainage system while pretending to help.

Clearance matters too. Homes with wood, composite, or fiber cement siding need visible space between the siding and the mulch or rock below (6” recommended). If landscaping materials are piled too high, moisture damage, wood rot, and pest activity become much more likely. Brick and stone veneer homes have another important feature: weep holes. These small openings at the base of the wall allow trapped moisture to escape. Covering them with mulch or stone is like a formal invitation for trapped moisture and mold.

Mulch remains popular because it is affordable, attractive, and easy to refresh. It can also help soil retain moisture and reduce weeds. However, mulch is organic material, which means it breaks down over time. That nice two-inch layer can quietly become four or five inches after several seasons of “just adding a little more.” Eventually, siding clearances disappear and weep holes vanish thanks to “mulch creep.” Mulch can also retain moisture and, in some situations, provide a welcoming environment for mold, insects, and termites. Termites, unfortunately, rarely respect property lines, and mulch is like chumming the water.

Crushed rock or stone borders are more durable and generally lower maintenance. They do not decompose, do not attract pests as readily, and make it easier to maintain proper clearances around the home. Rock also tends to stay where you put it, unlike mulch, which occasionally attempts to migrate across sidewalks after a heavy rainstorm. The downside is that rock can cost more initially, absorb heat, and sometimes make future landscaping changes less enjoyable for whoever owns the shovel.

As for weed barriers, they can be useful beneath stone to help separate the rock from the soil and reduce weed growth. Under mulch, opinions vary. Fabric barriers sometimes trap moisture and eventually become exposed as the mulch decomposes, creating the landscaping equivalent of an old T-shirt sticking out of the ground.

Whether using mulch or rock, the best foundation border is one that manages water properly, maintains clearances, keeps weep holes visible, and does not accidentally invite moisture or pests to move in rent-free.
