LAKE CONROE Realty

Living the Lake Life, Selling the Lake Life

The Lake Conroe Realty Group at Compass has built a reputation not only on results, but for the relationships that keep clients coming back year after year. In 2025 alone, the team surpassed $50 million in sales, a milestone that reflects both their momentum and their collaborative approach. The day-to-day operations of the Lake Conroe Realty Group are led by highly skilled professionals who are cross-trained, yet each brings a specialized focus.

Kelly Perkins serves as the team's Lead Buyers Agent and Broker Associate. A native Houstonian raised in south Houston and a graduate of Friendswood High School, Kelly went on to attend both Texas A&M University and the University of Wyoming, earning a degree in Marketing with a minor in International Business. Her strong foundation in marketing and business strategy continues to give her clients a distinct advantage in today's competitive real estate market.

After returning to the Houston area eight years ago, Kelly purchased her own Lake Conroe home through the very team she would later join. "While I was looking at houses, I told the owner of the company, 'I'd love to work with y'all,'" she recalls with a smile. "Long story short, here I am." What began as a client relationship quickly turned into a professional calling.

Kelly has proudly called Lake Conroe home since 2018 and is known for her hands-on dedication and responsiveness. Whether it means rearranging her schedule to show a new listing the moment it hits the market or walking clients step-by-step through every detail of their transaction, she is deeply committed to delivering a seamless experience.

She and her family fully embrace the lake lifestyle and the strong sense of community that makes the area such a special place to live and raise children. Kelly is the proud mom of four — Elliott, Elsa, Stella, and August — along with two crazy dogs who love the lake just as much as she does.

Michele Chrisner serves as one of the team's Lead Listing Specialist and Listing Coordinator and is often described as "the glue" that holds everything together. Born and raised in the Spring area and a graduate of Klein Oak High School, Michele earned her BBA in Marketing from Sam Houston State University. After spending time in the corporate world, she transitioned into real estate in 2009, initially as an office manager before becoming a licensed agent.

With over 16 years of experience, Michele has worked in nearly every aspect of the business, from property management and finances to agent support and listing coordination. She has been a key player with Lake Conroe Realty since its early days and helped guide the transition when the brokerage partnered with Compass in 2021.

Married with two children, Michele balances a busy professional life with family time on the lake, boating, fishing, and supporting One Loud Voice Ministry. Her daughter, Katie, studies Finance at Texas A & M, and her son, Garrett, is a Junior at Willis High School who plays on the golf team.

"This team is the best," Michele said. "When you ask for one person, you get all of us. We're all hard-working agents who are interchangeable to cover anything in order to meet our clients' needs."

Jessi Fleming is vital to the team as their Lead Listing Agent and Contract Specialist, while also expanding knowledge into lake and exotic ranch sales. A North Houston native raised in Magnolia, Jessi discovered her passion for real estate early in her career as an assistant to a top producer and never looked back.

Jessi graduated from Texas A&M University with a major in Communication and a minor in Business from Mays Business School. Known for her luxury-level customer service and attention to detail, she prides herself on guiding clients smoothly from contract to closing. Today, she is focusing on lake and ranch properties, a niche that aligns with both her professional interests and personal lifestyle.

Jessi is married to Bradley Fleming, and together, they have two young sons keeping them busy. Outside of work, Jessi and her family are either at their ranch nearby, golfing, or fishing on Lake Conroe. They are members of Restoration Church and look forward to continuing to grow their family and businesses in Montgomery, TX.

Kelly Perkins

While the three ladies manage the day-to-day business, their founders, Jamie and Allison Yancy, continue to provide guidance and advice. With more than 20 years of experience, Jamie and Allison remain actively involved, allowing Lake Conroe Realty Group to operate as a unified team. As they often tell their clients, “When you hire one of us, it’s a package deal... you get us all!”

The team’s strong relationships with other REALTORS® in the area, combined with their reputation for getting deals done, have made them a trusted name throughout Montgomery County and beyond. Their expertise spans waterfront homes, residential properties, and now land and ranch,

“THIS TEAM IS THE BEST.
When you ask for one person, you get all of us. -MICHELE

Michele Chrisner

allowing them to serve a wide range of buyers and sellers. “We treat our clients like family,” Kelly explained. “That’s what sets us apart. It’s why people refer us to their family and friends, and why they come back year after year.”

Outside the office, the Lake Conroe Realty Group lives the lifestyle they sell. From boating and sunset cruises to ice cream stops at Waterpoint and weekends spent with family, the lake is central to both their personal and professional lives.

“We’re constantly growing and learning. We plan on doing this forever. We have kids in college and kids at home. We’ll be here for a while,” Michele laughed.

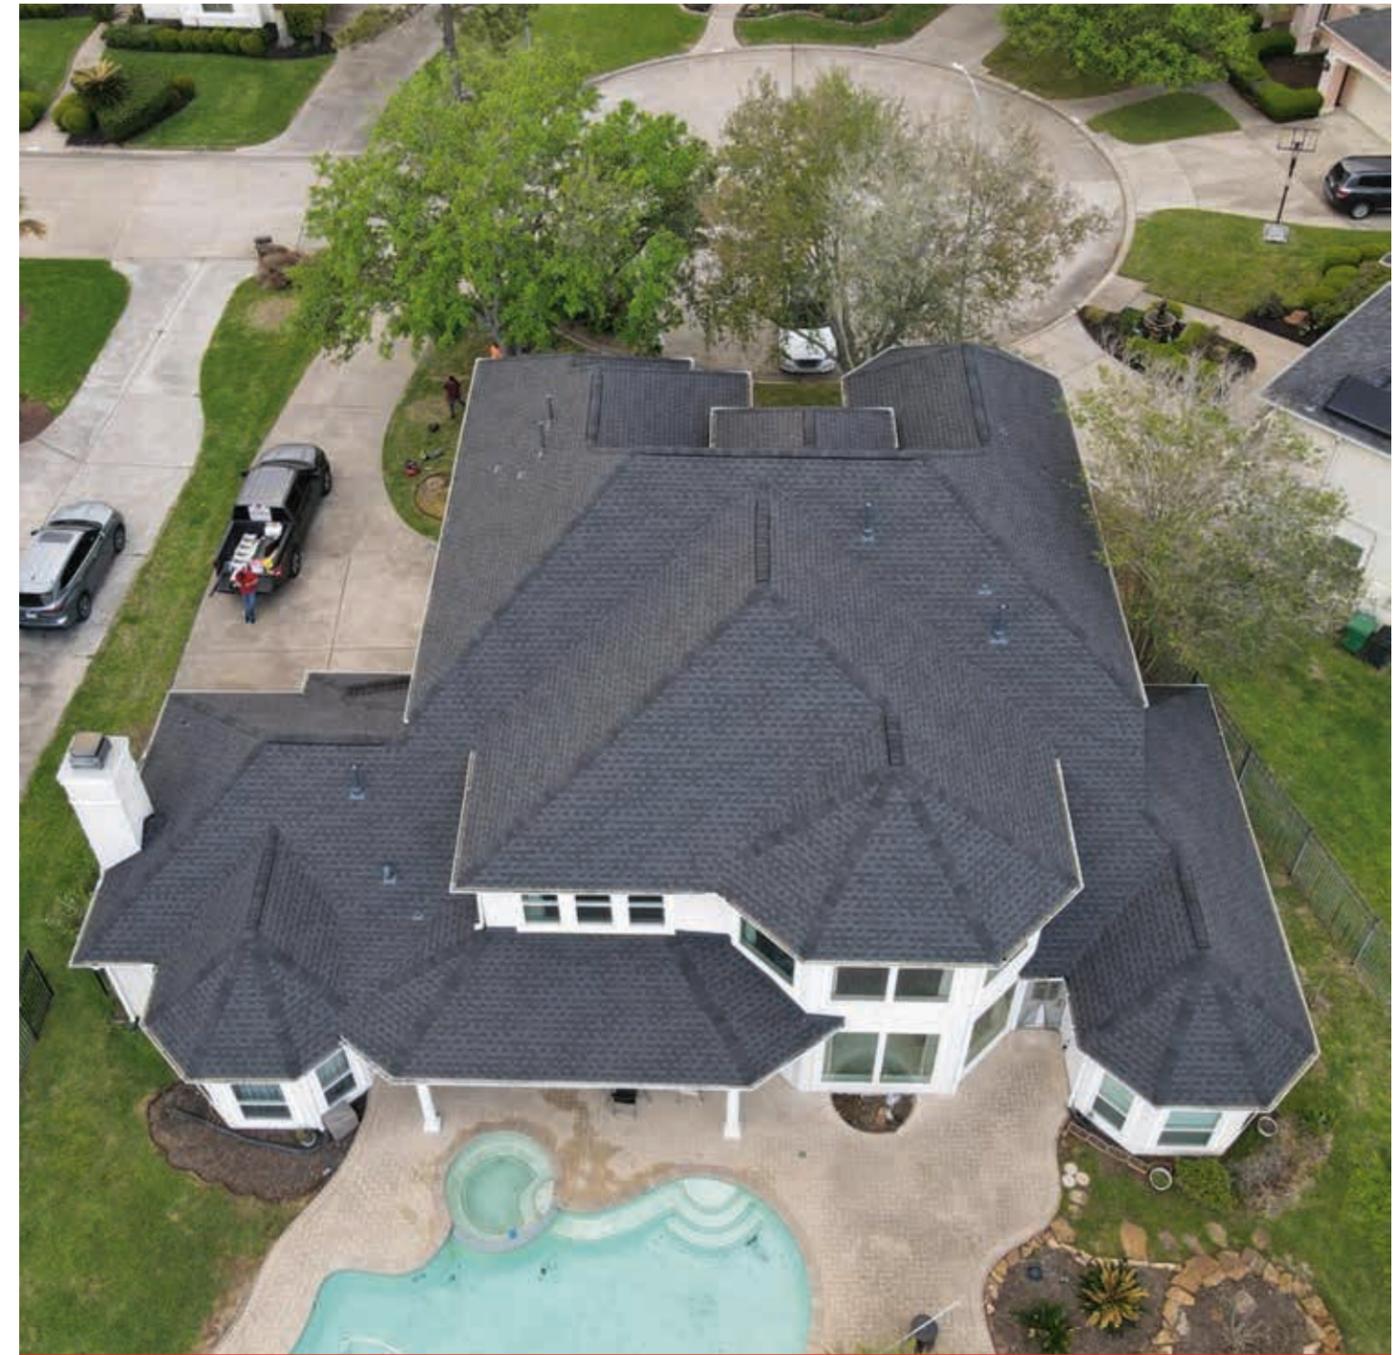

Jessi Fleming

With proven results, shared values, and a passion for the Lake Conroe community, the Lake Conroe Realty Group at Compass continues to set the standard for what a modern, client-focused real estate team can be: professional, personal, and passionate about helping people live the lake life.

*We treat our clients
LIKE FAMILY.*”

JOSEPH PETERS

Grounded in Gratefulness, Driven by Purpose

WRITTEN BY MEGAN TAYLOR-DICENZO

Born and raised in Conroe, Texas, Joseph Peters grew up on the same four and a half acres of land his parents purchased after they met in Houston. “It’s my home,” he said. “It’s what I know.” North Houston is more than a place on a map for Joseph; it is the community that shaped him.

While real estate would eventually become his profession, it was not part of Joseph’s original plan. After graduating from high school in 2015, he attended The Mays Business School at Texas A&M University, where he earned a BBA in Finance in 2019. It was there that real estate first sparked his interest. His cousin’s success in commercial development opened his eyes to the industry’s potential.

As graduation approached, Joseph interviewed with a commercial real estate firm in Houston. Just one week before commencement, he received a call that would alter his path; the firm had selected a candidate with more experience. “At that moment, my plans came crumbling down,” Joseph recalled. “I didn’t know what life would hold for me. It was a shock.”

Undeterred, Joseph began an internship at a development company in Montgomery County upon graduation. The team encouraged him to get licensed and get to work. Joseph earned his real estate license quickly while studying tax rules and opportunity zones throughout the Houston area. Despite his effort, the reality was discouraging. He wasn’t earning an income, didn’t know how to build momentum, and found himself living at his parents’ home, questioning what his future might look like. “It just wasn’t what I pictured for my life,” he explained.

Needing a change, Joseph decided to return to finance, where he spent the next year and a half, but the role left him unfulfilled. “It was miserable,” he laughed. “I didn’t have a purpose.” During that time, Joseph also found himself distanced from his faith, which had once been foundational in his life.

That began to change when he was invited to join a Bible study. “God works in mysterious ways,” Joseph shared. Through that community, Joseph rediscovered a sense of direction and calling: to live as a servant leader rooted in faith. His focus shifted from chasing the right career to becoming the person he believed God was calling him to be.

In the summer of 2020, Joseph’s mother asked if he would consider selling his grandmother’s home. Though he had never handled a residential transaction, he agreed. With guidance from a family friend who was also a broker, and splitting the commission evenly, Joseph completed the sale. When the check arrived, he was stunned. “I said, Is this all mine?!” he laughed.

That moment became the catalyst, and with careful consideration,

Joseph left finance behind to pursue real estate full-time. Over the following months, Joseph sought out the structure and mentorship of a real estate team. At his first meeting, he was asked a simple question: how much did he need to make to survive?

“At the time, I didn’t need much to get by,” he recalled. “I gave him a bare minimum number.” The REALTOR® assured him he would exceed it.

Joseph officially left his job in July 2021. The remainder of the year was dedicated to learning: making phone calls, showing homes, running comparables, and absorbing everything he could about the business. By January 2022, the market was strong, and Joseph was ready to excel. That year, he completed 25 transactions. “I looked at my year in review and realized I could do it,” he said.

Momentum continued to build. In 2023, Joseph completed 36 transactions. In 2024, he reached 40 transactions and approximately $15 million in volume. “It’s been a whirlwind,” he said. “God has poured into my business more than I could begin to imagine.”

Joseph is also quick to acknowledge the people who helped shape his success. “All the people who have poured into me have been incredible,” he said, especially highlighting the impact of working under experienced leaders like Ryan Kutter, Team Lead of the Kutter Real Estate Group. “Shadowing someone at that level is unbelievable; Ryan is where I want to be someday.”

Joseph leads an equally active life outside of real estate. A self-described “annoying CrossFitter,” he competes locally and is also a certified CrossFit coach at Whitehorse CrossFit in the Conroe–Magnolia area,

God works in mysterious

where he has trained for the past three years. A lifelong golfer, Joseph doesn't get to golf as much as he would like but enjoys the discipline and patience the sport requires.

Today, faith remains central to Joseph's life. He serves as a children's and youth leader through Bible Study Fellowship, having worked with students from first grade through high school. "It's a lot of fun. Those kids are smart," Joseph said. "They keep me on my toes and ask questions I don't always have the answers to." He also gives back through the Lion's Club, a community outreach organization dedicated to service.

God has poured into my business more than I could begin to imagine.”

For Joseph, success in real estate is not measured by numbers, but by purpose. "The overarching theme of my life in real estate has been gratefulness to God for providing me these opportunities and to mentors who have encouraged me to keep progressing," he shared.

Conroe remains home, and he takes pride in serving the area that raised him. Grounded in faith, strengthened by mentorship, and deeply connected to his community, Joseph continues to build a career and a life defined by gratitude, growth, and service.

Proudly serving Houston's Best Real Estate Agents & their Clients.
